Luke takes on Iowa State University

By: Emily Greiner

Luke Huber is attending the Iowa State University as an open-option student, but leaning towards pre-physical therapy or teaching. His favorite part of college so far is creating his own schedule. When giving advice to underclassmen, he says to take a variety of classes that interest you. "Don't worry about knowing what you want to be. I still don't know and a lot of people won't for a while. So don't sweat it. You have time to figure out what you want to do," he says. The HEF scholarship gave him the opportunity to help pay for his education at ISU, which he greatly appreciates.

Hudson prepared Luke for college in a variety of ways and opportunities. Hudson helped him with how he should study in college, as well as time management. In the future, he plans to graduate in 4 or 6 years from ISU. By the end of his college experience, his goal is to be happily married and have a good job for him to excel at, depending on what he majors in. He would also like to have a family.

All 2015 seniors are encouraged to apply for the 2015 HEF scholarships. Deadline is February 20, 2015 at 2 p.m. If anyone has questions about the Hudson Educational Fund (HEF) or about how to donate and contribute to scholarships for both students and projects of Hudson school teachers, please contact Jim Prather, Doug Coonrad, Shawn Kolterman or Joanne Hawkins. HEF is an independent, tax-exempt corporation created to provide scholarships for educational programs and projects of the Hudson Community School District, for both teachers and students. All donations made are tax deductible and nearly 100% of the donations are awarded in scholarships or given directly to programs. Since 1998, HEF has awarded over 200 scholarships and given over $10,000 to support school related projects. Please join in with the future success of scholars in Hudson schools.
