

HEF Scholarship Recipient

Emily Takle

Emily tackles Iowa State University

By: Emily Greiner

Emily Takle is attending Iowa State University as an open-option student. Her favorite part of becoming a Cyclone is meeting new people and joining her sorority. Her advice for incoming freshman is to find a balance with studying and learn to take breaks so you do not become overwhelmed with your studies. The HEF scholarship has helped her in a variety of ways. “The HEF scholarship has helped me not only financially, but has helped me find success knowing that my hometown is supporting my future goals and ambitions,” she says.

Hudson helped her prepare for college by allowing her to take college credits during her senior year. This allowed her to get a taste of what college was really like and how to study before she attended ISU. In the future, Emily plans on pursuing a career in business.

All 2015 seniors are encouraged to apply for the 2015 HEF scholarships. Deadline is February 20, 2015 at 2 p.m. If anyone has questions about the Hudson Educational Fund (HEF) or about how to donate and contribute to scholarships for both students and projects of Hudson school teachers, please contact Jim Prather, Doug Coonrad, Shawn Kolterman or Joanne Hawkins. HEF is an independent, tax-exempt corporation created to provide scholarships for educational programs and projects of the Hudson Community School District, for both teachers and students. All donations made are tax deductible and nearly 100% of the donations are awarded in scholarships or given directly to programs. Since 1998, HEF has awarded over 200 scholarships and given over $10,000 to support school related projects. Please join in with the future success of scholars in Hudson schools.